

New for 2019 at HSH.com: State Homebuyer Assistance Programs

April 9, 2019

Information on subsidized mortgages, loans and grants for down payments and closing costs helps potential homebuyers

Foster City, CA April 9, 2019 - HSH.com, a trusted online resource for mortgage data, content and expertise, has released a 2019 update covering state-backed homebuver assistance programs in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

Spring is an active time for housing markets each year, but potential homebuyers of modest means or with limited down payment funds can find themselves at a disadvantage.

States frequently offer housing support programs to first-time homebuyers, veterans, teachers, police and other groups in the form of subsidized mortgages, downpayment loans or grants, mortgage interest credit certificates and more. However, finding these programs can be a challenge if homebuyers don't know where to look to who to ask. HSH.com's resource puts needed information at the fingertips of potential homebuyers, including:

- A brief synopsis of each state's primary housing support programs
- Details on required incomes, credit scores and other restrictions
- Links to each state's website and contact information
- Links for required homebuyer education classes
- · Links to lenders that offer mortgage programs and support to homebuyers
- Detailed qualification information

See each state's offers here: State Homebuver Assistance Programs

Homeowners may also benefit from learning about this resource, as many states also offer programs for homeowners looking to trade up or renovate their homes
